Notice Regarding Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Holdings Certified as “White 500” Company under the Certified Health and Productivity Management Organization

Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Holdings, Inc. (Director, President: Tetsuo Ohkubo, hereinafter “SuMi TRUST Holdings”) hereby announces that it was certified by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) as a “White 500” company under the Certified Health and Productivity Management Organization (hereinafter the “Program”), which practices superior health management, for the fourth consecutive year since 2018, on March 4, 2021.

The Program is a certification system implemented by the METI together with Nippon Kenko Kaigi, for companies which practice superior health management. This year, the Program has recognized 500 organizations, including SuMi TRUST Holdings, as a “White 500”.

Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Group recognizes the importance of building an environment which supports the diversity, health, and job satisfaction of each of our employee, and the Group strives to promote the health, both physical and mental, of employees. To that end, we are actively working on supporting the balance between work and health through measures such as the leave system for cancer treatment, work interval operation, prohibition of smoking in all buildings, health promotion month, and greater flexibility in work styles through staggered working hours, teleworking, and other methods.

SuMi TRUST Holdings, in collaboration with Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Group’s health insurance association, will continue to promote higher levels of health management in order to create a workplace environment in which all our employees can lead long and vital working lives.
